Member Reports & Inquiries

Mayor Pahl discussed the Portfolio assignments for 2016. Councillors were advised to discuss any changes they might wish to see with the Mayor before the next meeting.

Council reviewed the travel expense bylaw. Staff was asked to review the bylaw, and review the meal expenses for council. It was suggested that meal rates might be changed to $20 for breakfast, $25 for lunch, and $40 for dinner. It was noted that meal expenses in Vancouver were becoming very expensive.

Staff was instructed to create a policy to honour past Mayors.

Council discussed forming a finance committee. It was decided that all members of council should be on the finance committee, which will examine the first draft of the 2016 budget. Councilors Milne, Rakuson, and Langman will attend the first meeting.

Mayor Pahl discussed the idea of having a permanent Deputy Mayor, instead of alternating councillors. This position would be appointed by the Mayor.

Council reviewed the Mayor and Council Remuneration Bylaw. Staff was instructed to review Bylaws from other Municipalities. Mayor Pahl presented a Salary review of many of the smaller communities in B.C. and Warfield ranked near the bottom of the review.

On a motion by Councillor Ferraro the meeting adjourned at 6:30 p.m.
