Call to Order

Mayor Langman Introduction to Hearing Format

Council has previously given first and second readings to the proposed Zoning Amendment Bylaw in order to schedule a Public Hearing to provide the public an opportunity to comment.

Council will not enter debate as the purpose of this Hearing is to receive input. Nor will further readings or resolutions occur at this time. Council will not accept additional comments after the adjournment of this Hearing, nor discuss this matter further until it is considered at the next scheduled Council meeting.

Those wishing to make comments are requested to indicate so, the Mayor will recognize the speaker, the speaker will state name and address prior to making comments. Comments will be recorded in minutes. Should there be written comments, the Corporate Officer will read them into the record for the minutes. The Mayor may request the applicant (if present) to address any questions that may arise from the attendees.
